HKMC Warns Against Activities of Impostors

It has come to the notice of The Hong Kong Mortgage Corporation Limited (HKMC) that there have been cases of individuals posing as its employees to falsely solicit business opportunities. These instances include individuals presenting a forged business card of the HKMC or suspected of making telephone calls purportedly on behalf of the HKMC.

The HKMC wishes to inform the public that these impostors are not our employees or agents, nor are they authorised by us for the purposes they allege. The HKMC has already reported the relevant case to the Hong Kong Police Force for investigation.

If there are any doubts about any information on the HKMC or the identity of persons purportedly representing the HKMC, please contact us directly through our telephone no: 2536 0000.
