Press Release

Technical Issues of HKMC Annuity Plan's Online Registration System

The online registration of "HKMC Annuity Plan" is currently out of service due to technical issues of the corporate website of the HKMC Annuity Limited (HKMCA). The technical staff of the Company is carrying out emergency repairs in order to resume the service as soon as possible.

Given the above condition, the online registration of the "HKMC Annuity Plan" will be extended by one day till 11:59pm on 9 Aug 2018. The forms collection time of the agent banks will remain unchanged (until close of business today). The above arrangement will not affect the other applicants as we expect the issuance cap is sufficient to absorb all subscription demand. We sincerely apologise for the above situation and further announcement will be made upon the resumption of services.
