HKMC Organises Premiere and Sharing Session of "100 Things I Want to Do after Retirement"

The Hong Kong Mortgage Corporation Limited (HKMC) organised the premiere of "100 Things I Want to Do after Retirement" and a sharing session on retirement planning today (21 January) to promote the use of the "HKMC Retire 3", namely the Reverse Mortgage Programme (RMP), the Policy Reverse Mortgage Programme (PRMP) and the HKMC Annuity Plan[1], to generate lifelong payouts in support of achieving personal retirement goals.

Around 30 partners of the HKMC, including banks, companies in the insurance industry, public bodies, social enterprises, etc., attended the premiere of the micro-film "100 Things I Want to Do after Retirement" starring Kenny Wong and Louise Lee, and participated in a lighting ceremony wishing the best for the public's retirement lives. In addition, a retirement planning sharing session, which was open to the public, was conducted to introduce the "HKMC Retire 3" and AMIGOS By HKMC loyalty programme.

Mr Colin Pou, Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer of the HKMC, said, "One of the HKMC's missions is to promote the development of the retirement planning market. Since the launch of the three products under the 'HKMC Retire 3' from 2011 onwards, we have helped over 45,000 customers enhance the quality of their retirement lives. I hope this micro-film can resonate with the public and inspire them to plan ahead for their retirement. The HKMC will continue to step up the promotion of the 'HKMC Retire 3' and strengthen financial education for the elderly, so as to support the Government's initiative to address the ageing society and promote silver economy."
